

AI Document Fact Checker - Test Document

Claim one: Drinking lemon water first thing in the morning detoxifies the liver.

Claim two: The Eiffel Tower is located in Paris, France, and was completed in 1889.

Claim three: Regular exercise is associated with a lower risk of cardiovascular disease.

This document is used only to verify that the fact-checker application correctly extracts text, retrieves relevant passages, and highlights the source evidence.